

The Apex Campus of Hope Community Church is closed due to the COVID-19 pandemic. We do not have a specific date on when the building or the open court schedule will open and resume. It's our highest priority to keep everyone safe during this time and will be taking the recommendation of our government on how to handle this situation. Please check back over the next month.